THE DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8 1865.

THE NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Jonathan Worth, Esq.

OF RANDOLPH.

ELECTION THURSDAY NOV. 9th.

THE PEOPLE must be trusted with their Government, and if trusted, my opinion is that they will act in good faith, and restore their former constitutional relations with all the States composing the Union.—Andrew Johnson's Letter to Gov. Sharkey, of Mississippi.

THE NATIONAL UNION PARTY.

We acknowledge His Excellency, ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, to be the head and leader of the great National Union party. His reconstruction policy is at present the basis of that party, and we stand firmly upon it. This is the only party we acknowledge in this State.

Election Returns.

We shall be glad for our friends to send us the earliest news of the results of the election, for Governor, Congress and Legislature.

Mr. Turner's Appointments.

Mr. Turner requests us to recall his appointments in the mountains, as he cannot attend them.

He requests us to state that he will address the people of Warren at Warrenton on the 8th inst.

Gov. Holden and Mr. Worth.

There is no fact more palpable to men of sense, who are disposed to allow President Johnson to be the interpreter of his own principles and policy, than that he can make no choice for Governor of North Carolina, between Gov. Holden and Mr. Worth, which would be unfavorable to Mr. Worth. If he have a choice and is guided by principle, as we know he must be, that choice must be in favor of Mr. Worth.

1. His policy of reconstruction embraces five leading principles,—First, that it be effected by loyal and true men,—Secondly, that those are loyal and true, who in good faith take the oath of amnesty and carry it out in their spirit and practice,—Thirdly, that the people must be trusted with their government,—Fourthly, that there shall be no unnecessary delay in effecting reconstruction, and Fifthly, that the people in Convention and at the polls give their sanction to the conditions imposed upon the rebellious States in order to their return to the Union.

In Mississippi, South Carolina, Georgia and the rest of the Southern States, except in North Carolina and Tennessee, his first, second, third, and fourth principles have been fully recognized and carried into practice. In those States, citizens, no matter what their previous opinions were, so soon as they declared their readiness to do so and did take the oath, they were regarded and treated as loyal men—they were trusted with their government, and proceeded without unnecessary delay to effect the work of reconstruction. In Tennessee all know that the "strait sect" only have controlled. In North Carolina, Gov Holden's test has been applied to the people, and only those "trusted" with office, whom he deemed loyal and true. This cannot be denied.

In order to effect this object in this way, a most tedious process was adopted, by which time was consumed pushing the Convention, elections and Legislature, immediately upon the heels of Congress.

To this policy Mr. Worth has been opposed, endorsing and approving heartily the more expeditious and liberal plan of the President, carried out so efficiently by Govs. Sharky and Perry. So far as the public are informed, President Johnson has in the most unmistakable and flattering manner endorsed the course of Govs Sharky and Perry. No such indications of his pleasure at the course of Gov. Holden have been made public.

Even when the action of the Convention of North Carolina transcended that of other States, in submission and obedience not only to the will of the President, but to the wishes of the North, the people of North Carolina and her Convention were simply informed through Dr. Powell, that the President was pleased with the action. No enthusiasm, no strong emotions were excited in the bosom of the President, no electrifying telegrams were sent, such as was the case when Mississippi and South Carolina informed the President of their action.

These facts are not unmeaning. Gov. Holden may have proofs in his possession of the confidence of the President in the correctness of his purposes, but has he evidence that the President endorses his course—that he approves his dilatory mode of proceeding? Certainly not.—And this is a material point in this matter If Jonathan Worth or B. F. Moore or Wm. Eaton or others that might be named, had been trusted with this work, we should have seen no delay—no tedious plans adopted—no selection of men as special objects of favor, but a confiding, conciliatory course towards all our people.

2. In the absence of any direct instructions from the President to that effect, Gov. Holden has given countenance to a severe reflection upon the President, and has allowed a direct insult and deception to be palmed off upon the people, by allowing the Standard to issue a daily, stereotyped placard in its columns: "Vote for Holden and GO IN, or for Worth and STAY OUT." The Governor knows that the declaration is unwarranted by any thing in his possession from President Johnson. He knows that the President desires that the people have a free choice for Governor—that he in no way interferes in that matter. He knows that so far as the President is concerned, that the life-long history of Jonathan Worth and his present position, commend him to President Johnson entirely—that no man is truer to the President's principles of reconstruction—none can be relied upon to carry them out more faithfully than Jonathan Worth.

3. And what can be said of the Congress and of the North! Does any one believe—is any one so struck with folly, that can believe that the Congress or the Northern people can prefer such a man for Governor as Gov. Holden, who has such a record as he has? Impossible. With Jonathan Worth, a record so consistent, so uniform, so pure—with a character unblemished by political charlatanism, undimmed by political trickery of any sort, can it be believed for a moment that it is half so unsafe—half so hazardous to the recognition of the State by Congress, to vote for Mr Worth as it would be to vote for Mr. Holden? Surely not.

"INSTEAD OF WASTING TIME IN TRYING TO FILL ALL THE CIVIL OFFICES OF THE STATE WITH ALL MY PERSONAL AND POLITICAL FRIENDS AND PARTISANS, I DETERMINED TO RESTORE THOSE WHO WERE IN OFFICE AT THE SUSPENSION OF THE CIVIL GOVERNMENT, AND WHO HAD BEEN ELECTED BY THE LEGISLATURE AND WERE FAMILIAR WITH THEIR OFFICIAL DUTIES."—Gov. Perry's Message.

Look at This.

It is a most noteworthy fact that every administration paper in the North announces Holden as the Union candidate in this State, and Worth as the candidate of the party opposed to the Union. Wilmington Herald.

Why is this? Because the Holden papers, the only papers of the State which have had access to the North for any length of time, have stereotyped the falsehood from the beginning. Can any sensible man believe it, when Jonathan Worth has always been a Union man and his competitor, at one time one thing, and at another time another.

Stand to your Posts.

The Worth men have only to be up and doing, to give the "strait-sect" and "red strings" the worst drubbing they have had since Zeb. Vance drubbed them last. Our friends all over the State appear to be confident of success. Wherever the people have had light and time to consider, they will do their duty to the State and to themselves. Let them be at the polls and vote for the honest old patriot, Jonathan Worth.

The Standard says, "let Worth men be elected, and a powerful party would at once exist in the State against the administration of Andrew Johnson!" The party opposed to strait-sectism in this State is indeed a strong one. But Andrew Johnson is not a strait-sect leader. Therefore it could not be arrayed against him, but for him as against the leader of strait-sectism.

We say to the Standard that "Winston, and Eaton and Clark and a few others," did not desire Judgeships. If they had desired positions, perhaps they could have obtained them. At the present time when every man's purse is lean, a lawyer whose practice is worth any thing, would hardly accept of a Judgeship, if he wants to replenish his purse. Men's wives and children cannot long feed on honors.

Alamance and Randolph.

We learn that the Worth men in these two counties are fully aroused. Mr. Zebedee Rush we learn, is out for the Senate and for Mr. Worth. That gallant leader, R. Y. McAden is stumping Alamance and the county will go for Worth by a strong vote The Worth ticket for the county it is believed will be triumphantly elected.

Old Chatham.

The Standard says:

"Chatham is almost en masse for Holden."

The County has been shut out from the light, being without mail facilities, and we should judge from the character of the delegates sent to the Convention, that the darkness is almost palpable. The opposition to Holdenism is strong in the County. The vote for Worth and Turner will be larger than the Standard calculates. The thunder of Orange and Alamance will wake them up in Chatham, and will compensate for all damages sustained there.

C. C. Clark, Esq.

We are glad to learn, that Judge Howard declines to run in the second District. This leaves the field to Mr. Clark. The opposition to him now will scarcely make its mark. The Holden men will concentrate on Mr. Lehman.

PETITION FOR PARDON.—A petition for pardon of Jefferson Davis is circulating here for the signature of ladies. It was drawn by one of the most gifted of North Carolina's daughters, is eloquent in terms, and has been already numerously signed.

We have already published the petition for Gov. Vance, and will in a few days publish the petition for Mr. Davis. We hope the petitions will be filled up as soon as possible.

Judge Buxton the Standard says, will hold a Court of Oyer and Terminer for the County of Montgomery at the Court House in Troy, on the second Monday of the present month.

NEW SCHOOL.—We learn that Mr. O. R. Burchard, who is a graduate, has opened a school for boys and girls, on Newbern Street, three doors west of Pettigrew Hospital.

Col. D. K. McRae.

The following letter from Col. McRae has been handed to us by a friend, accompanied by a note from the Colonel, which contains the following paragraph: "Will you do me the favor to ask Mr. Pell to publish it as an act of justice to me."

As the Colonel claims it in his own defence as an act of justice to him, we do not feel at liberty to decline it. In a contest with Col. McRae the Standard can only claim to be second best.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Oct. 25th, 1865.

My Dear Sir:—I see by a copy of the Standard of Oct. 12th, that Mr. Holden has not yet exhausted his malice towards me, and that he finds fitting instruments for its gratification in his two Joes. In that paper he says of me "Mr. McRae, it will be recollected was one of Gov Vance's agents in Europe, for the sale of Rosin bonds to purchase war supplies, and the belief is that Mr. McRae's operations were quite brilliant while they lasted." This is but the re-insinuation of an old charge, which "Mr. McRae" has often met, and which he expects some day before a proper tribunal thoroughly to expose to Mr. Holden's cost. It has always been the habit of Mr. Holden to suspect people's honesty. In the Standard of June the 19th, 1861, a paper he then edited and published, Mr. W. W. Holden now "Provisional Governor,"* put forth this editorial:

"ANDY JOHNSON"

"The papers charge Senator Johnson with the rankest treason to his own State.' It is said that he has received $1000 from A. A. Lawrence of Boston, for his efforts to keep Tennessee in the Union. The course of Johnson, Etheridge, Nelson, Brownlow and Maynard cannot be too severely denounced."

If Mr. Holden could thus accuse a man of so much purity, and honesty, and patriotism as President Johnson, of "the rankest treason," and of being bribed, and that with the paltry sum of "$1000," it is not to be wondered that he limits his accusation against an obscure person like myself, to only fraud and stealing. I want you to send a paper containing this letter to President Johnson with my respects. I wish him to see how congenial our qualities are in Mr. Holden's estimation. I have the solace of good company, which misery loves.

In that same Standard of June, 1861, there is another editorial, wherein Mr. Holden recommends that "British vessels" be allowed to load with Naval stores, 'if the naval stores are really designed for the British government or people, but let not our enemies (Yankees) have a pound." It was by such assurances as this that Mr. Holden contributed to induce "British" capitalists to negotiate North Carolina Naval Store Bonds, the payment of which he now "practically non-recognizes." In the same paper Mr Holden "Prov Gov." says to Kentucky and Missouri that "the time has fully come when they cannot hesitate, their destiny is with the South beyond all cavil." It is well for their people that they did not more generally heed his counsel—else they might find their applications for pardon "not up to time." For I, whom Mr Holden voted out of the Union, and against whom he voted an ordinance making it treason if I fought under the Federal flag—I find that he has made this recommendation on my application: "I respectfully recommend that this application be rejected." It was impossible for me to suit him either way, for he denounced and ridiculed me when I opposed secession, and he wishes to hang me because I did secede when he made my "destiny with the South beyond all cavil."

In the same paper, Mr. Holden advised all Southern debtors to pay their alien i. e. Northern creditors by "paying the amount due into the State or Confederate treasury and taking a receipt" as a "full discharge of the debt." Having the honest purpose some day to pay my debts, I did not thus discharge the few I owed at the North; and fortunately for me I did not, as I should have to pay them over again, for Mr. Holden would not think of aiding me to repudiate. There is a distinguished officer of the U. S. army here, who was present when Mr. Holden told Gen Sherman, that he "had never been a secessionist, but always an ardent Union man." I showed this officer the foregoing number of the Standard in which the above four evidences are found, and also showed him Mr. Holden's circular, in which he said that from the "very outset he had stood by the side of George W. Mordecai, Chas. Manly, Moses A. Bledsoe and Thomas Bragg." The result was that the officer formed the same opinion of Mr Holden's veracity, which the people of North Carolina have long entertained.

And what shall I say of the "Cannon" out of whose muzzle this cartridge has been fired. I remember when it was simply a brass field piece used mostly for holiday discharges. It seems now to be regularly planted in Mr. Holden's battery. There are many citizens of Raleigh who have heard Mr. Cannon denounce what he was pleased to call the despotism, then existing. During the war he had been all the time for peace. When peace come he was bloodily for war, for said he "if this despotism be peace then give me perpetual war." He was not considered however to be dangerous, and when he was hired into Mr. Holden's service no one was surprised at his immediate adaptation for his new duties. Now to see how readily, and as it were spontaneously he could belie his previous declarations, every body found out of what he was capable, when he served as assistant druggist in the Confederate 'so called' Surgeon General's Department.

Mr. Holden once came by the Standard in quite as sudden a way. It was presto and both changed as quick as a cannon shot. The succession is worthy of his chief, well fitted "to stand in the ring and do his messages." If he were only accoutred in spotted breeches his character would be complete. In such capacity he would be "brilliant while he lasted."

I have a few more words to say, and do not know that I shall ever again spend a thought on Mr. Holden, now Provisional Governor or any one about him. It is a great mistake if the people of North Carolina vote for Mr Holden under the idea that President Johnson desires it. The President wishes the loyal people of North Carolina to choose their own Governor. He does not mean to bind his policy or his influence to any man. Nor does he intend to allow any man to hang by his skirt Mr. Holden can't reach the coat tail of "Andy Johnson" so called, however, he may stretch. As the election of Judge Humphreys in Mississippi was recognized and the ex-rebel chief pardoned to the loyal expression of the State, so will the President stand aloof and give free scope to the voice of loyalty in North Carolina. He does not need Mr. Holden and can do without him. The high ground—the bold and conservative stand which President Johnson has taken, and his policy so excellently adapted to the emergency, has already rallied to his support North and South, the loyal and honest sentiment of the public, and strongest and truest among his supporters are and will be found those who were most ardent and faithful to the cause they espoused—who feel the obligations of honor imposed by the result—and who will perform their new duties with fidelity, without relinquishing their manhood. Mr. Holden is not of this category. He has been treacherous to all who have trusted him—and he will desert President Johnson and go over to Chase or Wendell Phillips whenever a fitting opportunity may induce him to "take care of himself."

Very respectfully, D. K. McRAE.

Old Warren.

A friend writing to us from Warren, says:

"Warren's favorite son, William Eaton, Jr., made a rousing speech in Warrenton on yesterday in favor of Jonathan Worth for Governor, and what few Holden men there were in Warren, with about four exceptions, have changed for Worth. You may put down the vote in Warren as follows: for Worth, 700; for Holden, 4; for Josiah Turner, 650; Arrington, 50; Russ, 1; Edwards, 3."

The Import.

Every vote given against William W. Holden on Thursday next is a vote against the administration of the general government, and will be so heralded throughout the country.—Wilmington Herald.

Yes, and the Herald will herald in advance the falsehood. Every child in the State knows better

Hon. A. H. Arrington of Nash has withdrawn from the canvass. Remember, the contest is between Col. Russ, the candidate of the "strait sect" party and Josiah Turner Jr., the friend of President Johnson's liberal policy.

Points.

1st. Holden has prejudiced the State in the North and delayed her return to the Union, by pretending that loyal men were so hard to find that he was obliged to send agents and search through the counties, before he could find men to be trusted with the commission of the peace, thus postponing the assembling of the Convention, six weeks or two months, and putting us behind Mississippi, South Carolina, &c., though he was the first Governor appointed—all for the purpose of endeavoring to form a present party for himself

2d. He has in several articles of the Standard favored the observance of the test oath, insisting that unless we did so, we would not be re-admitted into the Union—was evidently pleased (the Progress concurring, with the exclusion thus made of all Southern soldiers as well as citizens from seats in Congress or any federal office forever.

3d. He has threatened the exercise of the freedom of the press and liberty of speech with armed force, in cases of the Raleigh Record and Milton Chronicle newspapers, and candidates for convention in Northampton and Chatham counties.

4th. He has brandished arbitrary power over the heads of the people, by proclaiming that he could tax them at his pleasure, and threatening to do it in the cases of Mordecai and Hawkins

5th. He has kept an agent in Washington, D. C., to intervene in cases of pardon, and to interfere with the exercise of Executive clemency, who makes complaint if any citizen is pardoned without his approbation, and defames them besides. See card of Powell, in case of M. and H.

6th. He recommends secessionists and rejects Union men according to his present animosities, or hopes of procuring their co-operation in his own political schemes.

7th. He insists, (see Standard,) that no man shall be sent to the Legislature except "the straightest sect," a name given to the 10,000 men who voted for him as Governor, against the 55,000 who voted for Vance in 1864, thus proposing to subordinate 55,000 to 10,000, and expecting them to yield or stultify themselves.

8th. He pretends that he has been for the Union for the last two years of the war—when the Standard, though it talked of peace and negotiation, indignantly denied that it was for reconstruction, and offered to fight if called a reconstructionist.

Proposed to follow A. H. Stephens, who was against reconstruction emphatically, and the Georgia platform which proposed to substitute the Union with a rope of sand, the articles of confederation.—N. C. Times.

A correspondent at Washington writes as follows:

"From an old politician here, I have the following make up of the next Congress, which of course, is based on the supposition that the Southern Representatives are admitted, which there is daily less and less doubt will be the case: House—opponents of the President, 127; supporters of his policy, 121; opposition majority, 6. Senate—opponents of the President, 38; supporters of his policy, 34; opposition majority, 4.

Maximilian has issued a decree inviting immigration into Mexico, giving settlers free lands, ownership in fee simple, free from all taxes and all duties for a year; effects not liable to custom dues, and exemption from military service for five years. They must, however be enrolled as militia for neighborhood defense.

The Standard learns that Gov. Holden has appointed B. F. Moore, Esq., Hon. Richard S. Donnell, and Wm S. Mason, Esq., Commissioners under the Ordinance of the Convention to prepare and report to the Legislature at its next session a system of laws upon the subject of freedmen, and to designate such laws and parts of laws, now in force, as should be repealed in order to conform the statutes of the State to the Ordinance of the Convention abolishing slavery.

The following dispatch has been sent by the President to the Governor of Arkansas:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C. Oct. 30, 1865.

To Governor Murphy, Little Rock, Ark:—There will be no interference with your present organization of State government. I have learned from E. V. Gantt, Esq., and other sources, that all is working well, and you will proceed and resume the former relations with the Federal Government, and all the aid in the power of the government will be given in restoring the State to its former relations.

ANDREW JOHNSON,
President of the United States.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1st, 1865.

The following has been addressed to his Excellency, William Marvin, Provisional Governor of Florida, at Tallahassee:

Your letter of October 7th, was received and submitted to the President. He is gratified with the favorable progress towards reorganization in Florida, and directs me to say that he regards the ratification by the Legislature of the Congressional amendment of the constitution of the United States as indispensable to a successful restoration of the true loyal relations between Florida and the other States, and equally indispensable to the return of peace and harmony throughout the republic.

WM. H. SEWARD.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1, 1865.

Hon. James L. Orr, Governor of South Carolina, was pardoned some weeks ago, but as that State has not repudiated the rebel debt she has failed to prepare herself for official recognition as a State loyal to the Union.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 30, 1865.

Governor Perry, was elected Senator to-day for the long term, ending 1871.

We learn that Rockingham, Stokes, Surry, Wilkes, Caldwell, Davie, Davidson, Rowan, Iredell, Randolph, Guilford, Alamance, Forsyth, to say nothing of the more distant Western counties, with which we have but little communication, latterly, will roll up heavy majorities for Jonathan Worth on the 9th inst.—Greensboro Patriot.

For the Sentinel.

Mr. Editor:—To-morrow the people of North Carolina will be called to say whether they will tamely submit to the threats and dictation of the Raleigh Standard, or maintain their character as worthy descendants of those who were "the free-est of the free." The annals of this State, and I trust, of none other, furnish no example of a public journal endeavoring to influence the vote of the people by such threats as the one implied in these words, "Holden and go back or Worth and stay out." Why sir, it is the very language of Imperial Ukases, edicts, &c. Let us see how the Royal decree of the Standard would read in formal dress:

The Raleigh Standard to its true and faithful subjects—greeting: We make known to you this, our Royal edict, to wit: That on the 9th day of the present month at the several election precincts of our beloved dominions, you do there and then assemble and cast your votes for W. W. Holden, as civil Governor, under such pains and penalties in default thereof, as it may be our good pleasure to inflict. Done at our palace on Harget Street, the 6th day of November, A. D. 1863.

STANDARD.

Jones, Secretary.

Will the people obey such a mandate from this "so-called" autocrat? Our revolutionary ancestors fought and suffered eight long years in order to obtain the priceless boon, which has been transmitted to us, of freely choosing our public servants. Shall we surrender it into the hands of the Standard at its mandate? That is the question to be determined by the people of this State on to-morrow. In what manner it will be determined. Mr. Editor, I have no misgivings. The thundering tones of rebuke that the Standard will hear in a few days from every portion of the State, will teach that paper that the citizens of this State are still the "worthy sons of worthy sires," and that its menaces are as little heeded by them as were those of George the 3d by their ancestors. And now Mr. Editor, let me advise the young gentlemen of the Standard to study the history of the Romish Church. They will there learn that so long as their Holiness, the Popes, confined themselves to to their legitimate vocation as the heads of the Church, the respect and veneration of the Catholic world for them was almost unbounded. But when they became ambitious, and sought to combine the temporal with their spiritual powers; in other words, when they overstepped their proper sphere of action, the respect and reverence of mankind for them waned and diminished, and consequently, their power of "binding and loosing" has become more circumscribed. So also, if the young gentlemen aforesaid had confined themselves to their legitimate calling—that of instructing and enlightening the public mind, and had not become ambitious and sought to instal themselves dictators over the people, the respect and esteem which that people once had for them politically, would not now be lessened, neither their ability "to kill and make alive" abated. But the young gentlemen having chosen to seat themselves upon a "so called" throne, from which they are wont to issue imperial edicts and mandates, the people, on to-morrow, will hurl them therefrom, and politically bury them so deep that the hand of resurrection will never reach them. May their wandering ghosts ever be present to frighten those who would be guilty of like folly.

VINDICATOR.

[From the Louisville Democrat.]

A Letter from Jefferson Davis.

We give below a private letter to a friend in this city, which was not for publication, and which therefore gives the sincere views and feelings of the author at the time. It is plain that at that time Mr. Davis did not desire or expect disunion:

WASHINTON, Jan. 22d, 1861.

Dear Sir:—I have the pleasure to acknowledge yours of the 27th ult. I am on the eve of a departure for Mississippi, in obedience to her command and in accordance with my own views of the necessity of the South. To you I need not say that the event is to me a painful one; but there remains to me the consolation that I have failed in nothing that promised to preserve the Constitution, and thus perpetuate the Union as our fathers made it.

After some remarks on private matters, he adds:

I hope Kentucky, the land of my nativity, will soon take her place in the Southern column. The Union of the South can now alone preserve peace, and in the united strength of the South is the only hope for justice and a reconstruction of the Government upon a basis that will secure the ends for which it was originally established.

(Subscribed.) Your friend,

JEFF DAVIS.

The Contrast.

We are highly delighted to learn from the Columbia Phœnix, that Gen. Wade Hampton has been pardoned. Was he as active in the war as ex-Governor W. A. Graham? Maybe he was a Union man all the time, and only took an eccentric way of proving his devotion to the cause.

But who is this Wade Hampton? and what did he do to render a pardon necessary? Did any of our readers, in either of the Carolinas, ever hear of him? The vote recently polled in our sister State rather indicates that some persons there have either heard, seen or dreamed that there was such an individual. And had you been in Virginia at any time from early in 1861 to December, 1864, probably you might have met with several in both armies who had an indistinct idea of having heard of a trooper of this name. So it seems he was not totally obscure and unknown to fame. How then does it happen that he is pardoned and Governor Graham is still unpardoned? Was the Governor the "raw head and bloody bones" of the whole concern? Did he sin more deeply than this heroic and gallant chieftain? The explanation is very clear. Perry—the liberal, unselfish patriotic and enlightened Perry, was Governor for his State, and W. W. Holden is Governor of North Carolina. Does not that account "for the milk in the cocoa nut?"—Charlotte Times.

CHAMP FERGUSON.—Champ Ferguson, who was recently executed at Nashville by a military commission, in his last statement said:

"I was a Southern man at the start, I am yet and will die a rebel. I believe I was right in all I did. I don't think I done anything wrong at any time. I committed my deeds in a cool and, deliberate manner I killed a good many men of course; I don't deny that, but never killed a man whom I did not know was seeking my life. It is false that I never took any prisoners. I have taken a great many, and after keeping them awhile paroled them. I tried to prove this during my trial, but they would not give me time to do it."

The Town Pump.

Brinsley Sheridan, in one of his rotund parliamentary efforts, was understood to have passed a high eulogium on the works of the "luminous Gibbon." To a friend who inquired why he called Gibbon a luminous writer, he replied. "You misunderstood me, I said VO-LUMINOUS." The present VO-LUMINOUS writer in the Court Journal, is the last of a series of workers at that town pump, during the Gubernatorial holidays. First, the "young gentlemen," jointly and severally took a hand, and pumped away to the best of their poor ability. Joseph the elder, managed the subject of corn crops, cider, apple brandy, and fish oil. The younger of that amiable name managed (?) the Sentinel and and kept up the punning department. It was soon ascertained that the pump worked weakly. So a stronger arm was called to the pump handle. It reminded one of the good old times when W. W. Holden, was at the helm. The water poured out in a strong, steady current after the old fashion, to the great refreshment of the straitest sect, and to the dismay of those who were out in the storm naked and shivering, and had no relish for such cold baths. But Jupiter himself is obliged to sleep sometimes, and wearied by these and his other great labors, laid himself down for a nap. The young gentlemen came to the rescue, and went at it again, with all their might. But the pump was soon out of order, and they gave it up in despair. The Sentinel was by watching their labors, and laughing at their vain efforts to pump water out of a dry well. The Cabinet occasionally tried their hands but soon gave out, not being used to that sort of business. So the poor pump was about going to the dogs, and the straitest sect were likely to die of thirst, when the lucky thought occurred, that there was a man somewhere who could write an epic poem in four days, which would beat Homer all hollow—or Mr Rayner's long and loving epistle, to Dr. William Elder of Washington city, covering about a page and half of the Standard. Him they pressed into the service, and tied to the pump—with the solemn injunction to go it and save the straitets if possible! And he goes it, sure enough as the last Standard abundantly shows. VO-LUMINOUS articles which nobody reads, except a few of the anxious straitest—sprawl over the surface of that precious sheet, column after column, in everlasting flow, to the utter exclusion of readable matter, for which the people do greatly hunger and thirst.

One thing is remarkable, that each and every pumper is greatly in love with 'Governor Holden." Each one blows out lustily that ever honored name. A friend of ours the other day counted "Gov. Holden" fifty seven times in about three columns and a half of the editorial side of that sheet. That name weareth a charm. It soundeth sweetly—like first love. It hath an unctuous flavor. It tickleth the auricular tympaniel, like the soft breathings of a lute. It goeth directly trembling to the heart of the songster. Verily a happy family of minstrels, who greatly delight in themselves and each other. Each gently praiseth and scratcheth the other. Anon they all in happy union scratch their great friend and patron. Peradventure, when no one see-eth, he scratcheth himself, and singeth in subdued warblings the praise of "Gov. Holden." Quien Sabe?

Ever and anon it allowed that whosoever will, may exercise his gifts at the town pump, and it affordeth great delectation to divers of the "straitest sect."

For the Sentinel.

"Love and Madness."

"This will never do," as the Edinburg Review commenced its scathing article on Byron's "Hours of Idleness" Out with it young gentlemen. Publish the "documents" in the Court Journal so that others as well as the "friends" of Gov. Holden may see exactly how the "sympathies and preferences" of the President now run. These "documents," it is shrewdly suspected were dated some months ago, before the "elegant extracts" come out. We presume that they read somewhat after this wise,

"WASHINGTON, June —, 1865.

The duty of preparing the State of which you have been made by me the Provisional Governor, devolves upon you, and you will see that the hearts of your people be turned in the most effectual way to this great object. You will be careful to allow no personal feelings to influence your action. Win the hearts of your people. Be indulgent to the erring, and impartial in the distribution of your favors. Above all, hurry on the work, and present the good old State again to the Union 'with a good Union record." My sympathies are with you and may God aid you in the good work! I shall always pray for your prosperity and happiness.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant.

To Hon. W. W. HOLDEN, Prov. Gov. N. C.:

Now this is a kind and courteous document.—But as in epistolary correspondence generally, there are forms of courtesy, which speak a little more than is meant. But it is the way of the world and is understood by all.

As for example—when the President subscribes himself the Governor's "obedient servant" he does not mean strictly that he is "obedient" to the Governor. Every body knows that it is rather the duty of the Governor to be obedient to him.

Much less does the President mean that he is "servant" of his appointee. So when he prays God to aid him, and promises his prayers for his prosperity and happiness, it may be doubted whether the President really got down on his knees and prayed, or will do so hereafter. His antecedents are not very saintly it is thought.—And some people have said that he sometimes swears a little when he gets mad. These things would mislead soft people to whom they are addressed, if literally understood and taken for gospel truth.

A famous example is that of the late unanimous vote of thanks by the Convention, which was mistaken by the boys for a real bona fide approval and of his election by the people besides. But let us see "the documents" and their respective dates. Let us see whether any "sympathies and preferences" have been expressed by the President since OUR Standard documents have met his eye. Let us see whether he really now very deeply sympathises with and prefers the man who classed him as one of the trio of "elegant devils," viz: Andrew Johnson, John C. Breckenridge and Edward Everett—and who wanted a "tongue to curse the slave, whose treason," and so forth! "Andy Johnson made his escape Northward through Tennessee in a close buggy with three armed guards," and so forth! "Bought with a thousand dollars," and so forth! Out with the documents! young gentlemen.

MR. EDITOR:—The friends of C. C. CLARK Esq., of Craven County, announce him as a candidate to rspresent the 2nd Congressional District, in the next United States Congress.
October, 17, 1865-61-tde.
⁂ Goldsboro', Wilmington and New Berne papers, please publish.

To the Voters of Wake County.

At the request of many voters, I am a candidate in this County for the House of Commons of the General Assembly.

The Convention requested the Governor to appoint a committee of three persons to prepare and report to the Legislature a system of laws for freedmen, and to specify what laws relating to them, ought to be repealed He has done me the honor to designate me as one of them. This work, with other indispensable engagements, will so occupy my whole time as to forbid my mingling much, if any, with the people.

I avail myself of this occasion to assure you of my grateful sense of your confidence recently expressed in electing me to the Convention. If I am honored again by your confidence, I shall strive to merit it by my services. Very respectfully yours,
71-tde. B. F. MOORE.

INDIAN TOWN, Currituck Co., N. C., Oct. 17, '65.
MRS. S. A. REID:—I take pleasure in stating that I have found great relief in the use of your RHEUMATIC OINTMENT.

After suffering fifteen years, and trying every remedy, I could get, I used your Ointment three weeks only.

As I could not get it after the mails were stopped I have been unable to give it a fair trial, but have suffered very little pain since, and now walk without a stick, which I have not done for 8 or 10 years.

Very truly yours,

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMpany of Hartford, have appointed

their General Agent for the establishing sub Agents in North Carolina and Virginia, according to his discretion. This Company has no superior in this country, is of long standing, and its Assets are over a million and a half dollars. It has a surplus of $100, 00 over and above what is required to reinsure all its policies. Its monthly receipts are over $150, 000. And it is issuing monthly nearly 1000 policies. Its rates are moderate and reasonable, and all losses promptly paid. Thus it is commended to all who wish to provide for their families and loved ones, a certainty for support when their earthly dependants shall have passed away.

WM. H. CROW, Agent.

Raleigh, October 27 67 1m.

North Carolina Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

AT A MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE Company on the 27th of September, an assessment of 15 per cent. was levied on all premium Notes in the office of the Company at the time the losses occurred, to be paid in three instalments, viz: six, nine and twelve months from 1st October, 1865.

The amount of premium Notes on hand,	$120.0 0
" " Allowed Losses,	10 0 0
" " Unsettled do.	7, 0

(There are some losses not yet reported, the amount of which of course cannot now be stated.)

The assessment may appear to be disproportionate to the amount of the losses; but the Directors, taking into consideration the changes in property by sale, without transfer of policies, by destruction during the war, &c. &c. do not think that more will be raised by it than will be needed to meet the actual wants of the Company.

There will be, necessarily some delay in the payment of the losses. It is hoped however, that there will be no complaint on this account, especially when it is recollected that payment in some cases, was tendered in Confederate currency and refused.

The Company is prepared to take risks as in former times, and on as favorable terms. Address all letters to the Secretary.

T. H. SELBY, Pres't.

LOUISBURG

FEMALE COLLEGE.

REV. T. M. JONES, A. M., Pres't and Proprietor.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will begin on the second Wednesday in January 1866.

Louisburg is a village seldom surpassed for health intelligence, refinement and morality. It is in Franklin County, nine miles from Franklinton on the R. and Gaston Railroad. Between these points there is a daily stage line, connecting with trains going North and South.

The College building, located in a beautiful grove, on an elevated site, is large, commodious and well ventilated. It will be thoroughly renovated and fitted up with neat furniture and fire places in the dormitories. It is our purpose to establish for young ladies a school of the highest grade, affording superior facilities for the acquisition of a thorough and accomplished education.

With the advantages of a good library, a well selected Chemical and Philosophical apparatus, a competent Faculty, and large experience in connection with the Greensboro Female College, we hope, by a faithful discharge of duty, to merit a liberal share of patronage. Boarding pupils will live as members of the President's family. Terms reasonable, and will be made known in due time. Those desiring to send their daughters, will please address me, for the present, at Greensboro,' N. C., and circulars will be sent.

A Valuable Lenoir county Farm for Sale, Lease or Rent.

THE SUBSCRIBER OFFERS FOR SALE, LEASE or rent one of the most valuable farms in the county of Lenoir, or in the State.

This plantation contains 1410 acres, of which about one half is cleared and well improved. One half of that which is cleared is well adapted to cotton, and the whole to the growth of corn.

It is located within 2½ miles of the Rail Road at Mosely Hall, and 1½ miles of Rockford on Neuse River.

Mr James Wood, who resides within a few miles of the farm, will show it to persons desiring to see it.

Applicants will address me at Kinston.
